4TO GRADO

Escuela Randolph
DICIEMBRE

4TH GRADE

Randolph Elementary
DECEMBER

SPECIAL EVENTS

- Book Fair- December 3rd-7th (library)
- Bedtime Story Literacy Night- Wednesday, December 5th at 5:30 pm (gym)
- Moms and Dads Club- December 5th, 12, 19th at 8:15am (cafeteria)
- PTA Meeting- Tuesday, December 11th at 7-8pm (library)
- Early Release- Wednesday, December 12th at 12:51pm
- Winter Chorus and Instrumental Concert- Thursday, December 13th at 6:30 pm
- No School (Winter Break)- December 24th- January 4th (return to school January 7th)

English Language Arts

Reading:
-Non Fiction and Informational Texts
-Reading strategies to monitor comprehension
-Planning research, synthesizing texts, reading for research

Writing:
-Composing, editing, revising personal and persuasive essays
-Writing to grow research- based ideas

*Readers, remember to continue your independent reading, at least 30 minutes every evening and record it on your Reading Log.

Math

Multiplication and Division Word Problems
-Real life word problem solving strategies

Patterns
-identifying, extending patterns found in objects, pictures, numbers, tables

Equality
-finding equality in equations with addition, subtraction, multiplication and division

At home, please encourage your child to work on Dreambox on their iPad for 20 minutes each night. Students should be fluent in their multiplication facts up to 12x12.

Social Studies

Colonial Virginia
-Colonial economics, agriculture and slavery, settlement areas, moving the capitol (Jamestown to Williamsburg to Richmond)

Science

Earth, Moon and Sun
-Rotation vs. revolution, seasons, moon phases, tides, astronomers in history (Ptolemy, Aristotle, Copernicus, Galileo)

The Solar System
-Order, size, and characteristics of each planet